TRANSPORTATION & LODGING

Airport and Hotel Welcome Desks

Mulaqat Information Center Volunteers will be available at Houston airports to welcome the Jamat and provide information to Jamati members.

We remind the Jamat to arrange their own transportation to and from the airport. If you decide to rent a vehicle, be sure it has adequate insurance. Most states require personal liability insurance.

Those who take prescription medicine should keep it easily accessible and be prepared for unexpected traffic or delays along the way that could make the drive longer.

Mulaqat Information Center Volunteers will be available at the lobby of selected hotels to welcome the Jamat and provide information to Jamati members.

JAMATKHANA & OVERFLOW CENTERS

Jamati services will be held in various centers in Houston. The schedules and names of local Jamatkhanas and Overflow Centers are listed below. Please note that Jamati service will begin at 6:30 p.m. CST followed by dinner.

Access to Mulaqat Halls

The small size of each Mulaqat Hall will allow every Jamati member to have good visibility of the stage. The doors to the Mulaqat Hall will open only 2–3 hours before the ceremony, which will allow Jamati members plenty of time to participate in the 45-minute Intezaari program before Mawlana Hazar Imam's arrival. Entry to Mulaqat venues will be only for Jamati members who have their ceremony scheduled at that date and time. We ask that Jamati members only come to the site during their ceremony date and times.

Arrangements have been made for special assistance drop off at the Mulaqat Venue. The Jamat is humbly requested to follow the directions from Volunteers for parking. The Jamat's cooperation is greatly appreciated.

MEDICAL & SPECIAL NEEDS

Jamati members with chronic illnesses such as diabetes, asthma, high blood pressure, or heart disease, are advised to keep an adequate supply of medication and carry copies of prescriptions with a doctor's name and contact information and, where appropriate, MedicAlert bracelets, EpiPens, insulin shots, etc.

Health care professionals and ambulances will be on site to address medical emergencies. Should any member of the Jamat encounter a health problem at any time in the Mulaqat venue, immediately alert a Volunteer on duty near you or Health Board/Medical Volunteers, who will be wearing white coats. There will also be a First Aid Center on site. For health issues that occur outside the Mulaqat venue, please follow the standard procedure and go to nearest urgent care or call 911 for any emergencies.

Wheelchairs and Walkers

Members of the Jamat requiring the use of a permanent wheelchair or walker throughout the ceremony are requested to bring their own to the venue. Make sure to include your name and phone number on your equipment. Temporary wheelchairs will be available to transport Jamati members to their seats, meals and restrooms. There will be a designated area for wheelchair seating.

Chairs

Chairs will be available for those Jamati members who had requested one on their Registration Form. Chair request code will be printed on the individual Entry Card. We humbly request the Jamat not to reserve chairs, as they are on a first come basis.

Parents with Young Children

Accommodations will be made for private spaces for nursing mothers and baby changing stations. Baby diapers, tissues, milk bottles, baby food, noiseless or stuffed toys, child carriers and car seats will be permitted inside the Mehmani Hall. Stroller storage will be available outside the Mehmani Hall before security.

Child/Adult Identification Wristbands

Blank wristbands will be provided for children age 6 years and under as part of the Entry Card envelope for the family. Parents are urged to complete the information and place the wristband on the child. Additional wristbands will be available at the Information & Registration desks at the venue.

Wristbands will also be provided for those who have selected a Medical Code on the Registration Form.

For lost or missing children or adults, please inquire at the Lost & Found or Information Desks located at the Mulagat venue.

Refreshments & Dinner

Light snacks will be served on site and water bottles will be available. There are limited exceptions made for individuals with certain medical conditions (e.g. diabetics, those with food sensitivities), as well as parents of young children who require milk, baby formula and/or light snacks. In those cases, please ensure that all items are nut-free. We kindly request that Jamati members refrain from eating during the actual ceremony and that any trash is discarded appropriately.

Dinner will be served at all Houston Jamatkhana and Overflow Centers, including the Mulaqat Venue, from March 18–21.

Health and Wellness

Please consider the following tips for staying well.

- Be sure to bring:
 - Health card/private medical insurance information
 - Medications for the day, as they will NOT be available at the venue
 - EpiPen if you have known life-threatening allergic reactions
 - Medic-alert bracelet/card
 - List of any allergies or medical conditions
 - Name and contact information of closest relative and/or next of kin
 - Doctor's name and phone number
- Keep emergency contact information as well as list of medications and allergies with you

- Stand up and stretch periodically
- Drink plenty of water
- Please wash your hands and/or use hand sanitizer regularly
- Cough/sneeze into your sleeve, not your hands, and avoid touching your eyes, nose & mouth
- If you feel sick, let someone know and seek the assistance of a medical professional
- Locate the First Aid stations & Quiet Rooms
- Coordinate a family meeting location in case of separation
- Dress appropriately for the weather

Jamati members will be required to undergo a security check prior to entering the Mulaqat Ceremony Halls. The security process will involve electronic security scanning to ensure prohibited items are not allowed in the halls. Jamati members are requested not to bring large purses or bags. The security screening process will take time. Jamat's patience and cooperation are greatly appreciated.

Electronic Devices are Prohibited

The Jamat is respectfully requested not to bring any mobile phones, smartphones, smart watches or electronic devices capable of recording audio/video or transmitting data including tablets and personal computers. These items will not be allowed in any of the Mulaqat Halls. Please leave your phones and electronic devices in your car or at home.

Security Check

Jamati members requiring special assistance for security check, such as those with wheelchairs/walkers, or if you have metal implants/pacemakers or other implanted medical devices, parents with young children, expectant mothers, should check in with security volunteers on duty for expedited processing for the family.

On-site Lockers

A limited number of lockers will be available at the venue that can be rented from a third party vendor for a cost of $10 per locker. The institution is not responsible for any loss or damage of items stored in the lockers. Lockers at George R. Brown Convention Center are located between 10-15 min walk from the Ceremony Halls, on Level 2 near Mezzanine D. Due to the limited number of lockers we request individuals to share lockers with family members. Please note that lockers will not be available at the Smart Financial Centre or the Constellation Field (Skeeters Stadium) Staging Sites for Monday ceremonies.

INTERFAITH FAMILIES

Attending a Mulaqat—visit from Mawlana Hazar Imam—is a unique, special and much anticipated experience for Ismailis around the world. The events and programming surrounding Mulaqat are focused primarily on Tariqah-related activities and are religious in nature.

Arrangements have been made for interfaith family members to wait for those family members who are participating in Mulaqat activities. The interfaith room will be located prior to security check-in. The room is located on Level 2 near Mezzanine D and will have comfortable seating, media, snacks and activities for children.

Arrangements have also been made at the George R. Brown (GRB Convention Center Overflow for interfaith family members to wait during Jamatkhana ceremonies.

Please note that there are no designated waiting areas at Smart Financial Centre and Constellation Field (Skeeters Stadium) for interfaith family members. However, family members may choose to wait in the stadium seating area.

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteering opportunities during the upcoming Diamond Jubilee Mulaqat are available for those volunteers already registered in the Jubilee Event Management System (JEMS). All volunteers registered in JEMS are encouraged to visit the registration desks to select their duty days.

Please note that you can also visit the Overflow Centers in Houston to select additional duty days. For more information, please call the Diamond Jubilee Information line at 855-553-5872.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Protect Your Home and Business When Traveling

The Council would like to remind the Jamat to take appropriate safety measures to protect their homes, businesses, and vehicles during the visit. For those traveling from outside the Mulaqat city, please ensure that your homes are properly locked, security alarms activated, lights turned on as appropriate, mail placed on hold, and your vehicles are parked securely. Additionally, law enforcement officials commonly advise individuals not to post their vacation information on social media until after they have returned.

Ask-Me Volunteers

For any information, refer to the Ask-Me volunteers stationed at multiple locations at the Venue on the day of the Mulaqat.

Sanctity of Space

The venue for the Mulaqat, in which the Jamat will be in the physical presence of Mawlana Hazar Imam, is intended to be a space for peaceful congregation and contemplation. Therefore, we kindly request the Jamat's assistance and cooperation with the volunteers, so that we can maintain a peaceful, dignified and clean space appropriate for religious ceremonies of this nature.

Mubaraki and Welcome to Houston Mulaqat!
